

GOD WILL BLESS US, HIS PEOPLE

By Jesus' Holiness, Saint Dikeji Daniel Miyeri Jesu, the Bishop of the whole world.

Texts: Isaiah 30:19-26, Jeremiah 30:16-17

Date: Sunday 9th May, 2021

Today's exhortation says, "God will bless us, His children," and nothing shall stop HIM, because He loves us. Who are the people of God? We are His people. If you know you are God's own, then you should be happy. There shall be no weeping anymore for us, we God's people. Hearing this alone is enough for a sermon. Rejoice and when people ask you why you are rejoicing, tell them what God has said.

Cry and weeping are not the same. Cry is simply the shedding of tears. But weeping is lamentation; using your body to wipe the ground and asking yourself questions you cannot answer. God is compassionate, and when we cry to Him for help, He answers. God is trustworthy; He does not disappoint those who trust in Him. Now He is set to help us so we have no problem anymore.

Any area of life where you're weeping, that weeping should end now. Whatever is making you to weep; be it bad dreams, serious battle, etc. God is greater than all. We have passed from death to life. When we pass through hard times, the Lord will be there to help us to make things well with us and now it is well. Wherever we are to wonder from the way, God will stand by us to show us the right way and we will not make that mistake anymore.

As you receive this promise, do away with any idol in your heart. It is only by this that the promise can work or be fulfilled. Now, say to yourself, "Anything against God in my body, move out. Every negative thought, I cast you out from my body, move out because God has come to save me in the name of Jesus. Amen!"

You see, words are powerful. As you have just declared, so shall it be. We have no power to water our plants. God will do it. God will water our plants and flourish our businesses. What gives you problem before has already ended. Your debtors will come and pay you. Your application will be positively responded to. All bad dreams are already cancelled and the good ones are welcomed.

God promised to release the rain on our plants, and give us a rich harvest. We will have plenty and never live in scarcity. No witch or wizard can stop it. Again, say to yourself, "God will bless me abundantly. I will live in plenty. I will be on top and not below in Jesus' name."

The Lord said even our animals, will have enough to eat. All our enemies will be captured regardless of where they attack us. Be it in the dream, spirit, physical, etc, they will be captured and the way will be opened for us. Whatever they turned to, God will kill all. Every pain in our body will disappear. Shout a big hallelujah! Someone came asking me to pray for him to have money. I said everyone needs money. Or don't you. God will pour money on you. Happy marriage and children including, baby twins. Even if your daughter/son is due for marriage, as you receive this message, the way should open. Good job is coming your way. Shout a big Amen.

According to God, the moon will be as bright as the sun. Not everyone can use the moonlight to read. I shared the testimony of how God gave me perfect sight. In a revelation, two angels came in a moonlight. They said they were sent to treat my eyes. They worked on the eyes until I could see clearly with the moonlight. After that treatment by God, I can read the Bible with the smallest letters till today and forever.

There will be no shadow in our lives. Meaning, our lives will be very clear or bright. God will wipe away all powers of darkness – sickness and everything representing darkness from our lives. The sun of our lives will be seven times brighter than it is without producing heat. When people see you, they will wonder and ask, "Is it not the same business we are doing." They will envy you but can't beat you. What people can't get in a week, you will get it in one day.

My children, your weeping is over. God will bless us, His people. This will happen because God will heal the wounds we have received because of our sins. Shout a big Hallelujah! According to Jeremiah 30:16-17, God will devour those who devour us. All who oppress us will be oppressed into the pits they dug for us. He will do this because He has healed our wounds. Those who don't want us to have a stand, God will remove them and make us well, rich, happy and fruitful again. Even when enemies say you have been forgotten, their words won't stand; it's God's promise to us that will stand. The Lord has spoken it and it will come true.

May what God has promised, come true in your life. You will not weep again. In this world and in the world to come, may you enjoy the kingdom of God in Jesus' name. Amen!
